You dont get whats in the picture, you get two of the one shown in the right and none with Rudolph. The company would not correct it and said sorry the picture is wrong. They ofered a 20 percent discount but who wants Rudolph candle holders withno Rudolph? I am very disappointed, and did not want the item after waiting weeks just to receive a big disappointment.

This unit seems to get pretty hot. The problem is: there doesn't seem to be an auto shut off or timer, so it will run indefinitely, which is probably not very safe. I need to decide if I want to return it or not based on this fact alone!

Mounting paper towels from the underside of the cabinet is going old school, but I liked the idea - it clears up some space on the counter. I also like the idea of being able to just slide the roll on to the rod. However, this one is about 2" too short for a standard roll of paper towels. It may say it's 11.2 inches, but the paper towels extend past the end of the rod and the roll slides off when you try to tear off the towels. We'll keep using it, but it doesn't work as expected.

Same as the other answer false advertisement said the company was US California turns out came from China I am trying to order what I can from US know with Walmart that's very difficult but this was just playing out lying And I ordered it on October 6th it is now October 14th and I'm still not sure where the heck it is one says out for delivery another says it won't be in for another 6 to 7 days this is ridiculous. I would not recommend them anymore

I compare to my other watches and the size just blows my mind. I'll look for more watches like this one and do my homework very carefull.

The actual shipping process was quite slow %26 the hat arrived stuffed inside a small plastic bag, crumpled beyond any practical salvation. I initiated a return %26 was refunded immediately, no return necessary (draw your own conclusions from that). Instead of "linen" as mentioned in the description the hat is 100% polyester (no surprise considering the price) so I don't see steaming as an option. I may hang onto it for this year's "Dirty Santa" game to use as the gift that no one wants to be stuck with...

small fits about a 8 lb. cat velcro at neck, maybe just a little heavier.. it's made so they can't pull out of it easily, just don't make it a bad session you yelling cat afraid, talk and massage the toes easily.. have a treat even if you don't complete all toes- make it a good thing...

This seller misrepresented its product in the listing pictures. What we received has no resemblance whatsoever to the photos of what we should have received. It was shocking.

Very satisfied with the purchase. Wasn't expecting a sturdy, last along time clock. Glad it runs accurately and suited my taste. Packaged in a box.
